

To Loving Members of TFBC
Everywhere, it is filling up with the smell of the Spring. Soemtimes, when I see the attendance goes down on Early Morning service or Wednesday service, I realize it is the time of the season where people go to mountains for mushrooms or seashore for seaweed or clams. Some tipped me off with those info...

As I am getting older, the spring has become my favorite season because it is the same as the death coming alive like resurrection as the nature comes back alive after a long winter season. I am in awe of God's creation as I see the dead trees come alive in the spring.

The order of the nature that we face is birth, aging, sickness and death. All those are not in our control but in God's sovereignty.

In November of 2012, Late Pastor Sungtak Lim's funeral was at TFBC. He was a pastor in Seattle and suddenly passed away. What was even more sad is that later in April of 2013, another pastor, Pastor Moses Choi passed away and he was just one year younger than Pastor Lim. I recommended both of their funerals be done at TFBC to the leadership since both of the family could not afford to have funerals.

Both were colleagues in ministry. Late Pastor Lim and I went to school together in Korea and Late Pastor Moses Choi was my friend who I met at Tacoma. What brought more sadness to this situation was the widows of the pastors who were left alone.

That is when we started the small church support offering (Local Church support) Many of TFBC members supported so we were able to help both Pastors' wives. Now, Mrs Myung Choi has become a pastor and continue the ministry. We have been supporting the local church youth retreat that Pastor Moses Choi started.

What was in my heart always was the family of Late Pastor Sungtak Lim. When he passed away, his wife was in surgery for her heart. Their own child, Eunsung was born prematurely and he has cerebral palsy and developmental disability.
As I was coming back to US last week, I heard the shocking news. Now Mrs. Lim also went to be with the Lord. As I heard the news, I thought of Eunsung. He is not well and now he has to live without both of his parents. Who would comfort him and the rest of the family!

Last Monday, I went to the funeral with my wife to do the benediction but I was just speechless. It was most difficult benediction that I have done in my life. I was thinking of what to say as I drove to Lynnwood.

Believers were different. The families of the deceased were persevere pain and suffering as they worshipped God during the service. It brought respect in my heart.

Everyone! If there is no God, no Jesus, and no resurrection, how meaningfulness our lives might be? If we are not given the written word of God, where will we receive the comfort? If we do not have the church community in Christ, how lonely we might become?

We do not have enough time to love one another. We do not have enough time to share the hope of the resurrection. Isn't it so?

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord.
In Christ, Senior Pastor David Choi
