

To Beloved members of TFBC

It has been a while since I have been to Incheon Airport. Despite the sunny day, I can't see the ocean view because of the dusty view at the ocean front. People in Korea might not see it much difference from clear air but for those who saw the great view on a sunny day in Washington would see the big difference.

The spirituality of Korea is very cloudy like the dusty air in Korea. With the conflicts of ideology intensifying, there are often conflicts in families. Often we see the sad scenery of putting the ideology over the word of God in churches as well.

As I was in a flight to Korea, I had an opportunity to evangelize and pray twice for this person who was in a deep despair. He borrowed my Bible for 6 hours and he gave his life to Christ. We must remember that our purpose of life and the purpose of a church is to share the gospel.

The announcement for TFBC 4th Senior Pastor Search will go out this week which is shown below. The search committee will be formed soon. Please join in 40 days of chain fasting prayer to receive the hope that God gives.

I love you and thank you in the name of our Lord,

Senior Pastor David Choi
