

To Loving members of TFBC

Because of your supports and prayers, the Turkey Mission team was able to complete the mission and return safely. We traveled a lot and did many different ministries yet there were God's blessing and many learning and challenging moments.

Each balloon and each English word were used as important tools to share the gospel. Joshua and Esther's church has 40 attendance since they started 2 years ago. When we visited there were over 70 people and many rededicated their lives and 4 accepted Christ and 8 were baptized on the following Thursday. The church is not Baptist church but since they follow the early church example, they baptized in full immersion.

There were memorable moments so I encourage all to come to Wed service in November to hear the testimonies of Slovakia mission and Turkey mission team.

This week is the celebration of reformation of 501 years. On October 31 of 1517, Martin Luther wrote 95 thesis on the door of Catholic chapel.

In 1453, Turks overtook of Constantinople's Eastern Rome. The place was the capital of Eastern Roman empire where the persecution of Christians ceased. And Constantinople ended up existing for the next 1,000 years as the first Christian church. However it was conquered by Ottoman Empire and ended the Eastern Roman Empire. It is now a city in Turkey, Istanbul.

There is a famous chapel in Istanbul. Many visit Saint Sophia's Cathedral due to the size and architect. Many Christians, Catholic and even Muslims visit the cathedral. It was also used by Muslim as Mosque.

However, some of the arts and cross have been damaged by Muslims who conquered the city. There are holes in the cross and Holy arts were covered by paints. It is no longer being used for mass but tourist attraction. There is a mosque built in front of the Cathedral.

On the last day of the mission, we visited Armenian church near Van. Van used to be a capital for Armenia. They had the pride of their country being the first Christian country. However, they were conquered and destroyed. It was because it was their pride of being the first Christian country and despite having many Muslims around them, they did not evangelize.

The first Sunday of November is our 43rd anniversary. To celebrate the anniversary, KM is having Love Tacoma Revival. The church exists to share the gospel and fill the seats to worship and go out to share the gospel to the neighbors. When we lose the purpose, just like the cities in the Roman empire, all will cease to exist. The mission and the goal of a church is to worship, fellowship, discipleship, and serve one another and share Jesus.

I Love you and Thank you.
