To loving members of TFBC,

This year’s Special Morning prayers have blessed me in a special way. As we were reflecting on the 1 and 2 Timothy with the theme of building the healthy church, there were encouraging messages from Paul to Timothy, the young pastor.

The book of 1, 2 Timothy are known as pastoral epistles. The books were written in the actually reality of how can Ephesus church be reestablished as it was falling apart. In order to build a healthy church, the power of the Holy Spirit and vision needs to be restored in pastors and I realized that pastors need to be healthy first and went to the place of repentance.

What God strongly spoke to my heart during the special morning prayers was that God is looking for people who is ready to have the blessing poured upon them. I noticed empty seats in the senior adults sections. There were many who went to be with the Lord and also many have aged so they are not able to come to the early morning services. So the next generations need to fill those seats.

As I have shared during the new year’s service, new devotions are needed. For early morning services and Wed services, new devotions are needed in all ministries. New Planting thousand tree campaign that started in December is in need of new commitments. Please do not delay what you have committed to do.

When you devote to something, there is one thing you must remember. Get rid of thoughts of “I am doing something for God, I am doing for the church” and change the thinking to “I have been invited to the place of glorious blessing that God has prepared for me.” 2 Chronicles 16:9 says, “For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him.”

God is searching for people whose hearts are directed to God because of the love they have received from God. When those devote with the right hearts, God’s another blessing is prepared. God can do all things without us. However, God wants to do through us and He is prepared to bless those who are committed. John Piper, well known pastor said this, “Those who work do not receive gifts because they receive what they worked for. If you want the gift of the righteousness, you should not dare to work for it. God will work for this. Through this, God does not benefit from serving but God receive glory by giving blessings.

In that sense, start the new year with new commitments. As you give back the glory of God through your devotions because of the grace you have received, God’s amazing grace will be upon us once again.

I love you and I thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord.
