

Summer vacation season starts on Memorial Day and ends on Labor day. There is no other country who has such a long vacation season. TFBC started the summer ministries with VBS. This summer, we had 2 mission teams, one to Malaysia and another to Eastern Europe. The choir retreat, Youth/YAM retreat and Korean summer school ended. Also we had church wide Olympic as well.

Most of the families with children are now getting busy for the new school year. Some might going to the vacation towards the end of the summer. As the summer schedules end, many will try to prepare for the new season. Families, works, schools and all will plan for new things and plans.

However, there is something more important than just these planning. It is spiritual planning. And above all, the most important thing is worship. It is communication with God. Without intimacy with God, human planning will fail. No matter what kind of determination you might have, when hardship comes, you will face struggles.

Despite lack of preparation for the new season, come to the place of worship. We must make time for God. If you prepare 100% and be successful, you will fall into the trap of pride. Let us leave whatever is lacking. It is not suggesting that you become lazy or not do your best.

In the other hand, we must come to God humbling with confession that we can not do everything on our own. Come to the place of early morning worship. Return to the place of Wed worship. Have yearning for the Sunday worship. Is everything in life possible on your own? Or do you need God's grace? If you have experiencing God filling the 2% of what was lacking in life, you will know that it was 100% of God.

We need new devotion of the early morning service. All places of ministries and worship requires new devotion. It is the place where God has left open to fill the needs of all of us. As you are hungry for God, you will fill those places and experience the grace.

It is especially important to teach out children about the spiritual humbleness. I won't even try to explain how corrupt the world is today. The new school year begins. As you pray for your children with tears, the chidden will win the battle against the evils of the world with the grace of God.

I invite all of you to the place of blessing children for the new school year. Come with your children to pray for the children as they are going out to the spiritual battlefield. Allow your children to join Awana where they are equipped and trained with the memorizing the word of God. Do not take away the opportunities for the children to be bless but you will lead the way for them. By giving what is lacking in your life, I pray that your life will be even more fruitful in this season of fall.

In Christ,

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord
