

To Loving Members of TFBC

I wanted to share a short passage from a book, "A heart moves the world"

Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo and Jose José Carreras were known as top 3 tenors of our time. They were often on stage together but Carreras from Barce-lona, Spain did not like Domingo from Madrid of Spain. They fought over a minor issue and they separated their ways. In 1983, Carreras he found to be suf-fering from acute lymphoblastic leukemia and treatments he had over the years pushed him to the financial difficulties.

One day, Carreras found out about charitable research organization that treats leukemia. After being treated one day, he asked how the organization was estab-lished. He was speechless after hearing that the trustee was Domingo. Domingo started this research center to treat his friend Carreras.

In 1987, all three of them were on stage together. Carreras kneeled before the crowd and said to Domingo, "I am sorry. Forgive me." Domingo responded without hesitation, "It is important to save a person's life. It is not right that someone with talents like that to be wasted." These two friends overcame their differences and became a respectful friends and continue to touch the hearts of the people all around the world with their singing.

As you do ministries at church, you misunderstand each other, fight with each other and be angry at each other. As a church is a holy place, as I enter in, the community become imperfect. The church is between perfect and imperfect. I am between perfect and imperfect. As we accept Jesus as our love and savior, looking to Christ, we are moving from imperfect to perfect.

The story of Domingo and Carreras should be happening at church as well. How can we prove that we are the disciples of Christ? Jesus said, "

34 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” (John 13:34-35)

We must practice the love and forgiveness as we are the disciples of Christ. For-giveness is harder than loving. However, how can you say you love a person when you can't forgive the person? God has forgiven our past, present and future sins through Jesus, the son of God on the cross, there is no one that we cannot forgive.

I pray that all of you will follow Jesus' examples and show the love of disciples. God is pleased with our forgiving and love spirit.

In Christ,

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord
