To Loving members of TFBC,

On the day of 41st Anniversary

“Time” is something we do not talk about much when we are young but as we get older we often talk about how fast it is going. If a teenager say something like that, he/she wouldn't be considered normal. As we age, whether it is due to our experiences thru the time or realization that we have a fewer years than what we have spent, we feel each year goes faster and faster.

For me, it will be a full 6 years at TFBC in 2 months. Next year will be my 7th year. Today marks 41st anniversary for TFBC. Some of you might feel it has not been that long. TFBC started in 1975 at Lakewood Baptist Church. It started with ministering for Korean wives. It started with Rev. Kisun Cho on the first Sunday of November. It became history. Rev. Cho left after serving 5 years and Pastor Moon, now emeritus pastor started serving as a senior pastor on September of 1980.

First senior Pastor Choi built the foundation of TFBC and the second pastor, Rev. Moon led the history of building and growth. And Jan of 2011 I led the first service of the year as the 3rd senior pastor of TFBC. 5 years later, we had 40th anniversary last year with mission celebration and many other ministries to glorify God. The mission celebration Sunday service was a unforgettable worship service for me and it was filled with holy spirit.

This Sunday, TFBC became 41st years old. Israelites spent 40 years in the desert and entered into the promise land. Jesus fasted for 40 days in the desert. Moses was trained in the Midian desert for 40 years. 40 is a significant number in the bible. In that sense, we are entering into next 40 years.

God has opened a new chapter. God is the Lord of the church. Jesus is the head of the church. As all who belong to TFBC obey the voice of Holy Spirit, As God promised in the book of Haggai, God will bless TFBC with even greater glory. We are in the middle of that blessing

Great work everyone. Your prayers, tears, sacrifice, efforts, sharing gospel, serving...God sees them precious. God has prepared the crown of glory for our efforts to work for something that will never perish.

Till the day comes, we need to start a new race. God will tell us what it will be. Let us pray and expect and obey God.

I love you. Thank you

In Christ, Senior Pastor David Choi
