To Loving Members of TFBC

Korean Churches have new years’ service since it is in the culture of sending the current year away and receive the new year. Many Korean churches have service on New Year’s Day and also on the early morning of the first day a new year.

It Is not clear how it started but it is a great tradition. I have a fond memory of fellowship and worship on the new year’s even when I was a child.

Since 2017 had January 1st as Sunday, we had the New Year’s Eve service. Many suggested that we should bring the new years’ service back. TFBC tradition is the January 1st service in the morning and pastors praying for families after the service and we continue on with special morning services for the rest of the week.

I know this is a great tradition but we will consider different options with the leadership for the next year.

The scheduling and program are important but the most important thing is the nature. We give the last day of the year as Sunday Service. Let us reflect on 2017 and prepare the new year with repenting heart. Meet with the other families and spend time together.

Tomorrow, it is the first day of the year and the first day of the special prayer services. Let us prepare offering for God as we expect His blessing upon us. It is also a joint service. It is the family worship. Also, pastors will be praying for the families. It is important to finish strong but also important to start strong.

The next in line is the continuation of the special early morning services till Saturday. KM and EM will have separate services. I challenge the young families to come and pray. It is the opportunity to change your life and determine for the new year. As we give the time of the first prayer of the year, God will give us the turning point, wisdom, words, boldness and peace. During the pastors’ prayers, there will be healing and restoration.

This year, the theme is “Church, Rise Up Again” with 1 Corinthians chapter 1 and 2. We belong to church and people say do not be a member but be a church. As I, the church, rise up, the church community will rise up.

I hope to see you all tomorrow morning in the place of blessing.

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the Lord

In Christ, Senior Pastor David Choi
