To the loving members of TFBC

Hallelujah! As I lift up the name of Jesus on the first hour of the new year, I send greetings. Now, the new year 2017 has begun. It is a blessing that the first day of the year is Sunday so after yesterday's New years eve service, now we can start a new year with Lord's day service.

Time flies. This year is my 7th year of ministry at TFBC. It is my sabbatical year. In the 6 years, many ministries were done and many things have happened and many tears, pains, joy and excitement were all there.

The parking lot and drainage pipe constructions were finished. New 8 Ordained Deacons were appointed, there was a pastor ordination, the church by-laws were complete, Timothy Discipleship project started, 40th year anniversary event was done, mission conference with inviting our missionaries happened, had 30th year Messiah, started Yi scholarship ministry and Medical ministries, expanded mission fields, M52 ministry launched and supported people in need with over $100,000. I also remember celebrating 14 senior adults who are 90 and over for their birthday at church.

One of the most memorable thing is the KSBC that we hosted with all members supporting and working together to beautifully serve the annual meeting better than any other churches. Many pastors and their wives still remember and talk about our serving hearts.

However, there were sad events. With countless funerals and it was hard to see God take away our members to be with Him. Two of the pastor friends in Wash- ington had funerals at our church. Because of that, our hope in resurrection was even more strengthen and also small church support movement started at TFBC so it was great.

There were many regrets. Not able to love more, not able to take care of each members, not able to encourage more and not able to understand more, I apolo- gize for those things. I am just thankful that I have members and pastors who still accept me and pray for me despite my short comings.

Personally as I face Sabbatical year, I was allowed to take 3 months in the sum- mer. It will not hinder the church ministries. I will learn new things, write a book and visit missionaries. So I will be refreshed physically and spiritually and will continue to proclaim blessing words of God.

For me, our church's 7th hour, 2017 will bear more fruits for us to taste. God will allow us to bear fruits that human efforts cannot even imagine to bring. For you, your families, and church communities will experience amazing blessings in body and soul. I believe and experience the truth that is given to those who pray.

Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy. Those who go out weep- ing, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them. (Psalm 126:5-6)

I love you. I thank you. I bless you in Christ.

In Christ,
Senior Pastor David Choi
