

To Loving Members of TFBC

This past week, I attended and preached for Korean Military Revival in Korea. It was blessing to all thanks to your prayers and His grace. This Sunday, I will be sharing a message for one day revival in the air force base in Osan. Please continue to pray for me.

Next Sunday, we will be observing the festival of harvest. It is one of the Old Testament Holiday and it is the season of harvest. It is the day to give thanks to God for the crops that people have harvested. Typically it is observed on the first week of July as the second half of the year starts. It is to give thanks to God for blessing us for the first half of the year and look forward to more of His grace that He will provide for the rest of the year.

We must be thankful for what we already have received, what we receive now and what we will receive in terms of His blessing. We do not know the future but we trust God that our days are in His hands and not be worried about our lives. As we wait for His timing, we must mature and wait as a church and as members.

People find happiness or sadness from the same event according to how they view it. Sometimes our reality is painful and difficult. However, it matters how we look at the past and how we can be thankful and not regretful. Has thanksgiving disappeared from your heart? The reason that God's people are not able to be thankful is first, they have forgotten the blessing of the past. Second, they have lost the blessings of today. Third, they have lost the hope and vision for the future. Israelites were headed to the promised land yet they complained because they did not see the land yet. TFBC members should share the same vision and be a faith community together.

As Samuel was able to win a battle against Philistines with God's hands in the situation that he could not win, he praise Eben-Ezer God. I pray that your confession of God's leading us and helping our church till today will be filling your heart as you look to the past with the eyes of faith. Thanksgiving is a way to lead us to the blessing life. Our happiness and sadness are not depended upon how much we have but how we see things and what we see.

Let this season be the time you look with the eyes of faith in Christ and find things to be thankful. What we have received as blessing and what we are thankful for, we must meditate and prepare our hearts to give our thanksgiving offering to God on this next Sunday as we observe the festival of harvest.

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord.

In Christ, Senior Pastor David Choi
