SERMON NOTE

Can God really use your life? (Servanthood series #2)
Acts 9: 1-6 & 10-16

Dear Members of TFBC
As we are facing the Ordained Deacon Appointment Process

Well-respected SBC pastor, Henry Blackaby said in his Book, Spiritual Leadership, "According to the scripture, God is not just looking for leaders. It is not the concept of what we think as a leader. God searches for servants. When God received those who are willing to be shaped to be servants, the possibilities are limitless. God is searching for people who will lead all to be under God's will. God needs leaders who will obey God's word and know God's plan to lead people to do the work."

We were all sinners. We had faults. We were also saved from the pit of fire. To be exact, we were in the burning pit and were destined to die but through the blood of Christ and the Holy Spirit, we were cleansed and received new life. It is God's grace. Only those who experienced God's grace can persevere the another burning furnace of trainings. We are saved by God's Grace and will persevere the training by the strength that we received through the grace.

For the ordained deacon candidates, they all meet the qualifications of Acts 6, 1 Tim 3 and Titus 1. However, what is needed is the people who have the grace that was received in the fire because when God trains and shapes people, they can receive it with joy through grace.

As a pastor, a leader and a servant, I do feel I lack in many things. I often stayed up till late night thinking about so many responsibilities and demands. I often blamed myself for many mistakes. I have often felt like giving up. As one of the pastors has confessed, I felt glory and disillusion together. The age we live in is the same way. We should not be wavered by the words of the people but be pleasing to God as servants.

Now it is only a week away from choosing new ordained deacons. We need to pray together like it is our own matter. I want all of us to take time to bring this before God and we will experience the joy that the early church has experienced.

From Your Senior Pastor
Rev. David Sung E. Choi

VERSE OF THE MONTH

Verse of the Month Acts 8:4-5

Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there.
