To Loving Members of TFBC

Now days, we see lights of Christmas tree decorations around the streets in the evenings. Christmas carols are played in the shopping malls and people greets with Happy Holiday. Yet, the songs of birth of Christ are not played enough.

Slowly, the center of Christmas, Jesus is pushed out of Christmas. As we look at the world, it is no surprise. Jesus came to this world 2000 years ago as the son of God, the world did not recognize Him. Apostle John writes, "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it."(John 1:5) People also testified " He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him"

Back then and now, when people do not understand, they do not know what brings them joy. They do not understand why they have to live. They do not understand why fundamentally we have the pain. If no one is proclaiming, no one is able to see the truth.

Last Sunday after the 3rd service, we went around 84th street and did Christmas Caroling. Despite the cold weather and rain, many people came out. We shared gifts with neighbors and despite dissonance, we sang "Joy to the World" We prayed for them, we hugged them and talked with them. There were some testimonies. It did not seem much but it is meaningful for those who received it. Let us proclaim to the world continually. God will reap the fruits.

In Old Testament, we see Proverbs chapter 1 proclaim of wisdom. The wisdom is God's shouting to the world. As we prepare for Christmas, let us mediate on God and His Son who are the foundation of all knowledge and wisdom. (Proverbs 1:21-32)
21 on top of the wall she cries out, at the city gate she makes her speech: 22 “How long will you who are simple love your simple ways? How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge? 23 Repent at my rebuke! Then I will pour out my thoughts to you, I will make known to you my teachings. 24 But since you refuse to listen when I call and no one pays attention when I stretch out my hand, 25 since you disregard all my advice and do not accept my rebuke, 26 I in turn will laugh when disaster strikes you; I will mock when calamity overtakes you—27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and trouble overwhelm you. 28 “Then they will call to me but I will not answer; they will look for me but will not find me, 29 since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the Lord. 30 Since they would not accept my advice and spurned my rebuke, 31 they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes. 32 For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them;

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the Lord

In Christ, Senior Pastor David Choi
