

To Loving members of TFBC

Now, the year 2018 has only a couple of days left. 2018 is about to become a past that will never come back to us. There might be good and bad memories of 2018 that you want to remember and forget.

Recently, I read a newspaper article of asking, “Do you want to restart your life?” 80% answered with complete new restart of their lives. This shows that many are not satisfied with their lives and many regrets and disappoints are filling their lives.

Nadine Stair, a grandma from a small town in Kentucky, wrote a book called, If I had my life to live over again” It is filled with poems with illustrations. The author said if she can live all over, she would travel more, live joyfully and less seriously. This tells us of how precious little things are in lives. We need this in our lives as well.

Albert Einstein also said this, “If you want a different outcome, you can not try with the same efforts.” It is true. We just imagine of doing differently when a new chance is given but not sure if we can follow through.

But if an opportunity to restart is giving, can we do it again well? The answer is probably not. Because we are given today and tomorrow, and the opportunity to change our thoughts, habits and plans are there but we do not follow through. Many have regrets on their past but if they go back, they will make the same mistakes and same decisions and actions.

It is because without fundamental change in us, our thoughts and values do not change. When a similar circumstance comes, we would react the same way as we used to. However, today, we are given a new chance to restart our lives.

Starting from Jan 1, 2019 to Jan 12, we are doing a special morning prayer with the theme of “Restart with Jesus” with all church members. EM will meet upstairs and spend time with stories of Jesus in the book of Mark.

Mark 1:1 starts with this. “The beginning of the good news about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God,” God sent His son, Jesus to bring the good news to the lives that are filled with regrets. Jesus is the Good News. Just as the book of Genesis starts with how God created the world, the book of Mark starts with Jesus bringing a new beginning.

We can restart with Jesus Christ. We are given an opportunity with 12 days of early morning service with Jesus to start 2019. Wrap up the 2018 with the word of God and would you take the new chance of restarting your life with Jesus?

Nothing changes with your words and thinking. With Jesus, we can chance. I invite all of you to come to the special morning services of the new year. The first hour, first moments are crucial. The early hours of each day are important. The first week of the year is important. If your first 12 days will determine the new year, you must challenge yourself to go. To have a new start, you must sacrifice.

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of the Lord.
