

To Beloved members of TFBC

Hallelujah! I praise living god who created us, rule over us, saved us from our sins and leads us to eternity.

For the last few months, we have been mediating the book of Jeremiah. Despite God's warning, Southern Kingdom of Judah is following the footstep of Northern Kingdom of Israel that fell. There are 52 chapters in the book of Jeremiah and most of the book is about the judgment upon the kingdom of Judah. It is not easy to preaching on this continuously. It is because human being tend to innately reject the message of judgment.

At the end, as Jeremiah prophesized, the kingdom of Judah falls. Jerusalem had been surrounded by Babylon and would face horrible ending. In fact, God has been tolerating the disobedience of Israelites. God is very patient with us for along time. But we set a double standard on God because people get upset that God is not there but at the same time, they expect God to be patient with them.

However, when the judgment came upon Judah on the set time, no one was able to avoid it. It was upon the whole community. The community without anyone praying or seeking God's righteousness, all deserved God's judgment. There were not enough prophets like Jeremiah who cried for the people. Despite of all these, God's message of grace and restoration appears in the book of Jeremiah. We must see God's intention among His judgment.

I am quoting from an article from Korean Living Life(July), Hannah Smith.

[5 This is what the Lord says: “What fault did your ancestors find in me, that they strayed so far from me? They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves...”“My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water. (Jeremiah 2: 5, 13).

Just like Israelites, we try to dig our own well and abandon the source of the living water. We try to quench our thirst with our own experience and deeds. And we wonder why our thirst is still there. As God watches us, to save us from dying of thirst, they destroys the well that we dug in.

The reasons for this is God's grace that will allow us to drink from the source of Living Water. Hannah Smith says that God shakes things that we depend on and that is God's love. (Hebrews 12: 6-8).

True love is about doing your best to set straight for the person you love. If you leave your loved ones as they are, it is selfish live. So when God sees His children struggle and depend on unstable things, God takes those things away. So that we would no longer depend on those things but the process of getting rid of those things is very painful.

However, one who overcomes through this process with faith could only confess like this. Let David's confession in trial be our confession.

Yes, my soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him. Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will not be shaken. My salvation and my honor depend on God; he is my mighty rock, my refuge. (Psalm 62:5-7)

I love you and thank you. I bless you in the name of our Lord.
