There are three pastors who send me their writings through email everyday. One of them is Pastor Jooyeon Lee and he is doing a special ministry. He lives with homeless and the poor in a community and serves them. He writes his daily conversations and stories or how God speaks to him in a short writing and I wanted to share one that touched my heart.

Nowadays, I get an unexpected question.
"Pastor, will there be a war"
I wonder if they are asking in the view of prophecy.
I answered, "Most likely"
This does not mean I want a war to start nor a war to be used to solve an issue.
A War should not break out and peace should happen.
However, a wise man prepares for the worst and in the times of trials, he takes refuge and overcomes. (Rev Jooyeon Lee)

This is a short writing but I agree with the writing. I am asked the same question often. What we want is a war not breaking out. But thinking a war will never break out and being not prepared for it is also foolish.

There should be no war in Korean Peninsula and that is why we are pray from far away.

As we drove our vehicles, no one expect an accident because there has not been one for a while. No one expect to get a cancel in 10 years or think that one will die next year. We hope the worst will not happen but as we are human, we must prepared for the worst.

It is the same with the spiritual battle. "Lord, will there be a serious spiritual battle in my life" God answered through Peter.

1 Peter 5:7-9
7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
8 Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.
9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

Let us be wise men who prepare for what is coming all the time
Everyone! I Love you. Thank you. And I bless you in the Lord.
