

To Loving members of TFBC

There are many ways to measure your life as success or failure but one of the things to see is how you finish your life. We often see from the media, how people are finishing in a bad way.

From Presidents to military command, congressman, religious leaders and even those who are not in high position, we see people finish their leadership in a bad note. One of the company that seemed successful but now is forgotten is Kodak.

Kodak started in 1889 and it became the top of the industry as Kodak is used as the name for a film we used. Kodak even invented the first digital camera in 1975. Because of the fear of fading of analog film, they delayed the production of the digital camera for 20 years. During those years, competitions company, Fuji produced digital camera in 1988. Since their prime, Kodak went down-wards from 90% to bankruptcy in 2012.

Despite of producing the first digital camera, because they were blinded by their short term benefits, they went bankruptcy after 123 years. This story teaches us many lessons. First, they failed in renovation. Second, they stayed in their past glory. And the third and the most important thing is that they were not thankful for the customers but they sought after their own benefits. The outcome was devastating. Nothing last forever but despite the company being the first to invent digital camera, despite their ability to renovate, they sought after their own past glory and benefit and they ignored the customers, they ended up staining their past glory as well.

November is the season of Harvest and season of thanksgiving. It is time for us to wrap up for the year. Let us take time to thank God for leading us. Last year, we did 4 weeks of campaign of Giving the best to the greatest God. As the result of the leadership meeting report, we were able to give the most offering to God compare to previous years. It is important to have a heart of gratitude. Thanksgiving leads to giving, devotion and serving.

This thanksgiving is the most important element to finish our lives as well. What is the last words of great past Christians. It is by grace of God that I am who I am. Through that, they gave glory to God.

In order for us to do so, we must learn to wrap up our each day, week, month and year every chance we get. We are just sojourners on this earth and we are stewards. In these moments, the most important thing is thankful heart. We can finish our lives well if we confess that "by God's grace that I am who I am," "By people's sacrifice, I am who I am"

Let us start and finish with thanksgiving. What is important is not success but being victorious through have the heart and attitude of thanksgiving.

I Love you and Thank you
