

To Loving members of TFBC

Special Early Morning prayers has ended but I continue to hear from members that many are blessed from the book of Mark every morning messages. I see all pastors are continuing to preaching the blessing messages after the special early bird. Sometimes they preach better messages that me so I am challenged and feels a bit threatened by their message. ^^

For me personally, it has been a blessing time and knowing once again the power of the gospel books. This year's focus is transformation and growth and the book of Mark has been a great start.

Because the book of Mark shows how Jesus calls needed servants to establish His kingdom. It is only 16 chapters but has our life in it. There is a story of fishermen not able to catch any fish all night long and meeting Christ or we see ourselves in Matthew as he was just a tax collector at the gate and being called by Jesus just like we did.

The book of Mark is filled with people who met Christ. It shows how those people becomes disciples of Jesus. It is not a religious life but field education of how Jesus, the son of God who came to this earth and showed us through His life. Therefore, we must continue to read the books of gospel.

As we are at the one month mark of 2019, we are at the last Sunday of January. Life is like that. It moves so fast. It is like a fog in the morning. Life is worthless and restless as Ecclesiastes mentioned according to the Missionary Park's message yesterday.

However, God wants to call these worthless lives to make them His disciples and establish His kingdom through them. From meaningless life to purposeful life, our lives become. God is great. Without God, our lives are filled with vain, self-indulgence and darkness and ends our life with no purpose but when we are in Christ, we are the main people in God's kingdom. It is heart beating goal for us.

I hope that you will hold on to the word of God in the book of Mark. By following Jesus' example, wake the morning with morning worship and prayers at church. Just as Jesus has shown, have compassion on the lost soul and share them the kingdom of God.

Same time, same place and same change but it is up to you to have different life as you respond in a different way. As I was praying for ministries and our motto, God has given me these visions. I call this "All member imitating Jesus campaign"

- All member QT campaign (Start with Living Life)
- All member intercessory Prayer campaign (Early bird at least once a week)
- All Member Evangelism campaign (Share Jesus with at least one per week)
- All Member tithing campaign (not be a slave of money but be a master of one)
- All member serving campaign (Serving at least one ministry at TFBC)

Imitating Jesus is very clear thing. As you love Him you become more and more like Him. Because we love Him, we follow His example and ourselves slowly change. Whatever it is, we start because we love Jesus. Our sins are forgiven and we received salvation. What greater miracle can we experience than our own salvation?

It is still not too late. Start your life with Jesus.
I love you and thank you.
