To the loving members of TFBC

As I see the approval of TFBC constitution and bylaws. In South Korean, through the congress vote, the history was made by impeaching the president of Korea for the second time in the history. Among those who were filling the seats of congress, many of them should've have faced the impeachment themselves due to their breaking of laws.

Both US presidential candidates are accused of breaking the laws even now in US. One is accused of leaking top secret info of US thru her personal email and another is accused of tax fraud despite being a millionaire.

As we have news media cover all round the world and hearing different events with even interpretation of the happening, we are influenced by how media is presenting the facts according to their values. If media present things that are not factual to bring more issues, they can face the court.

However, in the world, if you use a good attorney, your crime sentence get reduced or even convicted as not guilty. On the other hands, you can also face the crime by yourself despite faults being on everyone. But God judges us by just and righteousness. God even sees the sins that is not caught in the world court system. Even wrongly accused crimes, God will take care of.

Regardless of how chaotic the world might seem, we must believe that God is the sovereign ruler of this world and only righteous judge. So what is the most important thing is obeying the word of God which is God's law before the laws of the world.

In the last few years, we went through the process of creating the bylaws and now finally we have official bylaws. The bylaws went through the ordained deacon board, bylaw committee, advisory committee, deacons body and the business meeting of the congregation and now it is re-viewed by attorneys.

However, creating the bylaws does not mean we are done. It is our duty to respect the bylaws, keep the bylaws and follow the bylaws together.

We defined in the constitution that God is the Lord and owner of the church and the highest authority is the triune God. Our belief is based on the Bible and the SBC Baptist Faith and Message.

Above all, we must love the word of God and keep the laws that God commands to keep in the Bible so that we may live. The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul. (Psalm 19:7)

I love you and thank you
In Christ,
